

Independent and uniform sampling.

The goal is to perform sampling in such a way that samples are independent and distributed uniformly.

The Metropolis-Hasting algorithm allows to perform sampling uniformly. If we start random walk from arbitrary node with following transition probabilities  $p_{ij}$  then the distribution of  $X_n$  when  $n$  approaches infinity converges to uniform.

In order to check